Verbatim Comments

Great instructors. Very exciting talk. However, presentation on screen wasn't identical to the printed materials I had.

This course I hope help me to organize my scientific writing more correct and more clear for readers. I hope so.

Thanks a lot for good advice during course topics.

More details about specific journals.

Some part should be added about the presentation of research papers in conference. The length should be some more.

Overall helpful and useful. Personally there was some information not relevant, but that was to be expected. The only negative was the slight disjoint at times between the two speakers. Otherwise they were both well informed.

I think that such a comprehensive workshop should be offered to a larger majority. It is very effective and many people should take advantage of this scientific writing workshop. Moreover, if a little bit more time is given to this event, it would be better.

Instructors sometimes speak fast. Tone was not efficient also. Microphone can be used and room was not good to see projected slide.

A good organized course. The interactive contents and examples can be added for making it more useful/nice.

Straub: Reminds me of a Hollywood movie, less content but nice to follow. for such a course, I would like to see more detailed info and less stories. Thoss: Suitable and sufficient. Sometimes a bit too rational.
